DISCLAIMER & LIABILITY WAIVER

*North East Willys Jeeps Organization (NEWJO), its Officers and Directors, and its membership, make absolutely no representation that off-highway recreational vehicle activities, and or vehicular restoration practices are safe. On the contrary, the Club recognizes - and hereby states - that off-highway recreational vehicle activities and or vehicular restoration practices are inherently dangerous! Persons who engage in said activities risk injury, disability, death, and damage to or loss of person and or property.*

Members and guests who participate in Club sponsored off-highway recreational vehicle activities and or vehicular restoration practices, are required to accept responsibility for their own safety - and accept any and all risks to person and property - as part and parcel of membership, or acceptance of any invitation to participate in the case of guests. Each member or guest who signs this waiver of liability agrees to hold harmless North East Willys Jeeps Organization (NEWJO) , its Officers and Directors, its membership, and the owners of the lands we drive our vehicles on and or property we practice vehicular restoration practices, in the event of an accident or incident resulting in injury, disability, death, and or damage to or loss of property. This waiver of liability extends to any heirs and assignees of the signatory.

I, _____, being desirous of participating in Club activities, do hereby agree to the terms of this waiver of liability for myself and my heirs and assignees. I understand that this waiver shall remain in force for my participation in any and all Club sponsored events during the year ending December 31, 2009.
